

Pink and Blue favour boxes are not only the perfect present for your guests, but look stunning set on your reception tables. They can be filled with treats of your own choice for guests to take home as a lovely memento of your wedding. Traditionally in Italy, where favours are called Bomboniere, they are filled with 5 sugared almonds. But if almonds aren't your thing then chocolate dragees, truffles or even not edible gifts such a mini candle or soap make perfect little pressies.
